

Instructions For Inserting Replacement Buttons

1. Place a wire hanger through the hole from the outside of the kneepad so that the hanger has a loop at the interior of the kneepad.
2. Twist the loop of the hanger around the button.
3. Add some dish soap to the top of the button and pull the hanger and button out through the hole until the hanger reaches the exterior of the knee pad.